Old Business

IARWC Update – Mayor pointed out the high points of the update, Dan Held answered questions from Alderman Link.

New Business

Macoupin/Montgomery Safe Passage Program – Lindsay Minor, Elyse Schoen and Jennifer Carron presented to the council a program called the Macoupin/Montgomery Safe Passage Program. This program offers walk-in and outpatient programs for a variety of substance abuses. They have several access points for services throughout Macoupin and Montgomery Counties. They are working with local police departments and have had success in lowering crime rates.

Traffic Signal Maintenance Agreement – An Intergovernmental Agreement (ownership and maintenance of traffic lights) between the City of Carlinville and IDOT was approved after a motion was made by Alderman Link, seconded by Harber. Motion passed unanimously. This agreement splits maintenance and energy cost for the North Broad lights and the lights in front of the High School on West Main. The city maintains the lights on the Shipman Blacktop near Walmart. Maintenance for the lights at the railroad tracks on West Main are the responsibility of Walmart.
